

Arts Programming for Children, Youth, and Families

These opportunities are for children, youth, and families, either free or inexpensive and take place out-of-school, weekends, and in the summer. Many of these programs also offer scholarships. Artistic disciplines vary and many are hands-on arts learning experiences.

These are categorized by arts organizations, community, dance, festivals, film/digital media arts, museums, music, and theatre. Locations are highlighted in red.

Unicorn Pillow Theatre, Logan—Wouldn't it be great if there were a place for kids to go crazy with their imaginations, making up stories, playing fun games and learning through theatrical exploration? Well there is such a place! The Creative Drama classes at Unicorn Children's Theater encourage children to act their age. The eight-week course explores drama from a variety of disciplines.

Students will develop an understanding of emotional expression while exploring the dramatic process. Come play in a no-performance pressure environment where creativity and imagination blossom. For ages 5-17, based on the Viola Spolin method. <http://cachearts.org/unicorn-theatre/>

Utah Children's Theatre, South Salt Lake, offers afterschool classes, homeschool acting class, Arts Expression Preschool and summer camps for children and youth. <https://uctheatre.org/>

Tuacahn Center for the Arts, Ivins — Tuacahn edifies and inspires the human spirit through professional world class family entertainment and an unparalleled artistic and academic experience that matches the majesty of our canyon. www.tuacahn.org

Utah Festival Opera & Musical Theatre, Logan, is a five-week summer festival with over 100 events including opera and musical theatre productions, concerts and more! The Musical Theatre Conservatory offers children and youth year-round professional training in acting, dance, and musical theatre. A summer week-long program for children and youth also provided. <http://www.utahfestival.org/index.php>

Arts Education Program
801-236-7559
jirwin@utah.gov

arts organizations

Art Access, SLC — Offers art workshops for ages 5 and up and an art therapy program for those with epilepsy. <https://accessart.org/programs>

Art, Design, Entertainment, Cedar City, offers workshops and classes for children: <http://swattersdesign.com/BeCreativeHere.org/classes-workshops/>

Artes de Mexico en Utah, SLC, exhibitions, Mexican art history classes, and art-making workshops for children and families. <http://www.artesmexut.org/>

Arts in the Parks, Ogden, is a FREE program that offers opportunities for children to explore visual and performing arts through hands-on activities. During the summer, the program travels to six different Ogden City parks for one week at each location. <http://www.weber.edu/artsintheparks>

Bad Dog Arts, SLC, provides programs for youth ages 5-18, by creating a safe space to engage in confidence-building and highly creative activities in the studio, in the classroom, and out in the community. At Bad Dog we believe art reflects what is possible and that art can inspire and challenge young people to discover their potential and strive for excellence in all facets of their lives. <http://www.baddogarts.org/>

The Boulder Arts Council, Boulder, provides monthly arts activities and events for the community. Many of these are for youth. Recently, Boulder Arts Council helped bring Ririe-Woodbury to perform in Boulder's schools. <http://www.boulderartscouncil.com/upcoming-events.html>

Brigham City Fine Arts Center, Brigham City— Want to try new things, be creative, learn art and acting skills and make new friends in a safe learning environment? The Fine Arts Center has several FREE or reduced fee classes and programs for children, teens and parents in theatre, puppetry, choir, song writing, visual arts, photography dance, and band. <http://www.bcfineartscenter.org/www>

Plan B Theatre, SLC, offers one play a year specifically for schools and kids and families. The play is performed in schools, FREE of charge and there are also public performances at such places at Ring Around the Rose, as well as FREE performances at a library. <http://planbtheatre.org/rscm/>

Salt Lake Acting Company, SLC, offers one excellent children and youth play annually during the holidays. This past season, it was the DIARY OF A WORM, A SPIDER, AND A FLY a musical adventure that takes a look at the world from a bug's perspective. It turns out their lives aren't all that different from ours! <http://saltlakeactingcompany.org>

SUU Performing and Visual Arts, Cedar City, has numerous performances and events throughout the year: <https://www.suu.edu/pva/ta/current-season.html>

Timpanogos Valley Theatre, Heber—The Arts Smarts Youth Theatre program includes Winter musicals (Jan-Mar), Summer musical theatre bootcamps (June), and a Fall theatre workshop (Aug.-Sept.). Prices range between $50-165. In addition to the stellar children's theater programs, TVT produces outstanding community theater throughout the year. Many of these productions include families participating in a show together! <http://timpvalleytheatre.com/>

The University of Utah Youth Theatre, SLC, offers classes and performances and a summer camp. Their main performance takes place usually in March. <http://www.youththeatre.utah.edu/shows>

Hale Center Theatre, Orem— Tuition for being in one of a children's production is $250. Private Voice Lessons are $130 a month which includes 3 private sessions and 1 master class. Summer Acting Classes are $75 for 5 day sessions lasting 90 minutes each. <http://www.haletheater.org/education/>

Heritage Center Theatre, Cedar City, offers family night at the arts and is the venue for numerous performances and events: <http://www.heritagectr.org/>

Logan Youth Shakespeare, Logan, provides a new opportunity for Cache Valley youth (ages 9-19) to learn and perform Shakespeare plays. Young actors experience the beauty of Shakespeare's language and the relevance of his characters by acting in his plays. <http://cachearts.org/logan-youth-shakespeare/>

Murray City's Drama Camp, Murray— In the summer, we host a "Kids Act Up" drama camp for a 1-2 week time period in August. With a professional director, kids come to learn "FUNdamentals" of being on stage. Children with all abilities can develop at their own pace, and learn through activities including improv games, musical theater, props, and developing a show. At the end of each camp there is a performance for parents. Shorter sessions are designed for children ages 5-7 with a more extensive session for children ages 8-14 using games and activities to teach acting skills and movement technique. Prices $25-55.

<http://www.murray.utah.gov/274/Drama-Camp>

Noorda Theatre Center for Children, Orem, supports university productions for young audiences, operates a youth summer camp, and develops new scripts for young people to see and perform. The Noorda Theatre Summer Camp offers four weeks of classes for young people ages 5 to 18. The Noorda Center currently sponsors two playwriting contests. It facilitates the Utah Young Playwrights for Change Contest for middle school student writers. <https://www.uvu.edu/theatre/noorda/>

Cache Valley Center for the Arts, Logan — Located in downtown Logan, CacheArts offers a wide range of visual and performing art classes for all ages including youth theatre, modern dance, drawing & painting, music lessons, beginning orchestra for adults, photography, ceramics, and a multi-disciplinary summer art camp. Applications for financial assistance are available. Families can attend plays and art events throughout the year. Historic tours are also available for groups. <http://cachearts.org/>

Draper Arts Council, Draper, offers auditions to children and youth to participate in theatre productions. <http://www.draperartscouncil.org/index>

Davis Arts Council, Layton, provides a FREE Sunday night concert series and Friday family film series from June to August at the Kenley Amphitheater in Layton Commons Park. During the Fall, professional theatre is taken into Davis County schools, in partnership with Plan-B Theatre Company. <http://www.davisarts.org/>

Entrada Institute, Torrey — From May through October, the Entrada Institute presents exciting Saturday evening programs. <http://www.entradainstitute.org/>

Herriman Arts Council, Herriman, offers a Children's Theatre Workshop each August-September where 125 children (ages 7-12) can sign-up online without an audition. During 6 weeks, 2 nights a week, children learn about audition, ensemble, leads, stage crew, musical numbers and staging. A couple of weeks into the workshop, auditions are held for solos and speaking parts. Participants perform 4 nights. <https://www.herriman.org/arts-council/>

Highland City Arts Council, Highland—After school art club on Mondays from 3:00—4:00 pm, cost is $10 per week. Children’s theatre workshops, guitar lessons, among others offered. <http://highlandcityarts.org/>

Holladay Arts Council, Holladay—Fine art show held in March, where children and youth may enter in mixed media, watercolor, oil, acrylic. Show is juried and prizes awarded. The Blue Moon Festival takes place in August, where the children’s art activity is adjacent to the playground. FREE
<http://www.holladayarts.org/>

Kayenta Arts Foundation, Ivins —The last full weekend in April, the Street Painting Festival takes place and area schools compete. More events found at <https://www.kayentaartsfoundation.org/>

 Kimball Art Center, Park City, offers a wide variety of art classes and summer camps for children, teens, and families. Storytime art for tots. Fees vary and scholarships are available. <http://kimballartcenter.org/art-classes/>

Midvale Arts Council, Midvale, has a FREE summer concert series. All concerts are held at 6:30 PM on Friday nights in the Midvale City Park and feature a wide range of genres which will appeal to all ages. www.midvalearts.com

Murray Cultural Arts, Murray, oversees the arts and history programs of the city. Camps, workshops, exhibitions and competitions available for children and youth. <http://murray.utah.gov/213/Cultural-Arts-History>

Salt Lake City Arts Council, SLC, provides Brown Bag Concert Series and the Living Traditions Festival. <http://saltlakearts.org/>

Sandy Arts Guild, Sandy — Get the summer off to a fun start learning musical theatre, audition, and performing skills that are showcased at the final performance. The class for participants 8-18 years of age is weekdays during June. Cost is $100 for youth 8-18 years and $50 for youth 5-7 years. Registration usually begins in May. If you have questions, please send an email to kmarsden@sandy.utah.gov. <http://sandy.utah.gov/Home/Components/News/News/244/187>

American Fork Youth Theatre, American Fork, is a safe, fun engaging program for children to learn musical theater skills and to experience the magic of showcasing those skills on stage. AFYT produces three musicals a year. One for 7th-12th graders, one for 3rd-6th graders and one for 3rd-12th graders. A beginning musical theater "Bravo" class for K-2nd grade as well as a musical theater dance class is also available. <https://www.facebook.com/AmericanForkYouthTheater/>

Cast Member Tuition: $150

Bravo Class Tuition: $30/month

Dance Class Tuition: $25/month

Summer production: July

Teen Production: Wednesdays; September - January; 4-6 p.m.

Youth Production: Wednesdays; January - March; 4-6 p.m.

Bravo Class: Wednesdays, September - March; 4-5 p.m.

Dance Class: Tuesdays; year round; 5-6 p.m.

Cedar City Children's Musical Theater, Cedar City, presents a late summer musical at the Heritage Center Theater. <http://www.cccmt.org/>

The Cedar Valley Community Theatre, Cedar City, is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, founded in January 2012. We organized the theatre to bring together students, children, adults and people from a variety of backgrounds in the Cedar City area, and to provide a vibrant theatre culture for all community members throughout the year. We produce two musicals each year in the beautiful Heritage Center Theater. We hold open auditions for each show, and welcome anyone to audition regardless of their prior experience. <http://www.cedartheatre.org/>

music

BYU, Beverley Taylor Sorenson Foundation Family Concert Series, Provo — Make family memories by attending the Family Concert Series, created to introduce the joy of music to children. All Family Concert Series events are FREE in the de Jong Concert Hall. No tickets required. <http://music.byu.edu/family-concert-series>

Cedar City Music Arts,

Cedar City— Cedar City Music Arts strives to increase among the residents of Southern Utah, specifically the Iron County Cedar City area, the knowledge, understanding and appreciation of Music Arts. <http://www.cedarcitymusicarts.org/index.html>

The Salt Lake Symphony, SLC, offers a concert for youth and their families annually. This past season: was OrchestrAnimals with Sterling Poulson as narrator and featured works such as Beethoven's Overture to the Creatures of Prometheus, Elton Jon's Hakuna Matata from the Lion King and John Williams' Highlights from Jurassic Park. They also offer on concert which feature area high school musicians playing along side the symphony's musicians. <http://www.saltlakesymphony.org/season.php>

Suzuki Strings, Cedar City, offers violin, viola, and cello instruction for ages 3 to adult including orchestra training. Weekly group lessons are offered during the school year with several performance opportunities. <http://suzukistringscedar.blogspot.com/>
$70 for one student
$80 for two students
$90 3 or more students

Orchestra of Southern Utah, Cedar

City, provides a Children's Jubilee with music, art and science plus a symphony orchestra concert designed for families in February. The Orchestra also sponsors fall recitals and features talented young musicians. <http://osucedarcity.blogspot.com/2017/02/excitement-and-fun-with-music-and.html>

Spanish Fork Arts Council, Spanish Fork, offers a youth theatre program for beginners and advanced students from August to early spring. The cost is $40 per month and rehearsals take place at Larsen Elementary School, with a final performance at a local high school. <http://sfyouththeatre.blogspot.com/>

In June, the arts festival provides activities in music, visual arts, theatre, and dance for children 18 months and older. http://spanishfork.org/dept/parkrec/arts/pdf/YAF_Courses.pdf

SUU artsFUSION, Cedar City, offers summer classes for children and activities through the year plus school outreach programs. <https://www.suu.edu/artsfusion/>

Tooele City Arts Council, Tooele —The Arts in the Park class has a craft project each week and the Children's Fine Arts Club teaches a different art technique and then makes an art project to go along with the technique. For ages 3+ and costs range between $10-25. <http://tooelecity.org/our-community/arts-council/arts-in-the-park/>

Utah Cultural Celebration Center, West Valley City, provides a diverse calendar of activities for children and families through their ARTrageous program. Some activities include Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead), Trees of Diversity & Holiday Ornament Making, concerts, and capoeira workshops. <http://www.culturalcelebration.org/programs.html>

UtahPresents, SLC—For the curious who want to experience artistic creativity pushed beyond the stage, UtahPresents ignites dialogue, explores issues and ideas, catalyzes innovation, and connects us. Family activities are provided at events. <https://utahpresents.org/>

Weber State University Arts Learning Collaborative, Ogden — Provides a calendar of arts activities for children and families year-round. <http://wsuartslearning.com/events/>

community

Arts in the Park Children Matinee Series, Murray—FREE performances for kids/families every Thursday, 2-3 pm, during the summer at Murray Park Pavilion #5.

<http://murray.utah.gov/853/Arts-in-the-Park>

Art Van by Clever Octopus, Murray— Art activities throughout the summer (different parks each month) 10 am to noon for ages 7-12. FREE but registration required. <http://www.cleveroctopus.org/>

Art Walk, Cedar City—Final Fridays of June, July, August, and September from 5 to 8 p.m. starting at Artisans on Center Street to Southern Utah Museum of Art. There will be artist demonstrations and live music. Updates published at <https://www.facebook.com/Cedar-City-Art-Walk-488202448044670/>

Club J Afterschool of the IJ & Jeanné Wagner Jewish Community Center, SLC, is unique in that students are picked up at their schools and brought to the JCC where they'll spend their afternoons participating in various activities, including art. The program runs the entire school year. Also offered are full-day camps for days when school might be out but parents still have to work. The program is available to students in grades 1 – 6, and the price ranges from $160 a month to $512, depending on how many days per week the family chooses, and whether or not the family has a JCC membership. <https://slcjcc.org/youth-teen/club-j-afterschool>

St. George Parks & Recreation, St. George —A variety of summer art camps for children and youth ranging between $25-70. <https://www.sgcity.org/>

The Way We Worked, Ogden, Hyrum, Castle Dale, Fillmore, Leeds, and Park City —A traveling exhibition created by the Smithsonian Institution and the National Archives. Utah Humanities is touring the exhibition to six communities around Utah January 2017-January 2018. Exhibit provides a drop in family art activity. <https://utahhumanities.org/index.php/Center-for-Community-Heritage/the-way-we-worked-exhibition.html>

Utah Museum of Natural History, SLC, provides summer and year-round programming for children and families, including the Bug Fest in June. <https://nhmu.utah.edu/>

Woodbury Art Museum, Orem, offers primarily FREE activities for families. Visit website for details. http://www.uvu.edu/museum/involved/family_activities.html

Utah has over 260 museums statewide (arts and non-arts focused). To view a comprehensive list of museums around the state visit, artsandmuseums.utah.gov > Programs > Museums

Treehouse Museum, Ogden—When a child and their grownup “Step into a Story”[®] at Treehouse Museum, they are learning together through exhibits and especially through our outstanding programs. Every day families can create art together in our colorful Art Garden, step on stage in our Simmons Storybook Theater through what we call a “ParticiPlay[®]” where children don costumes to help retell a fairy or folk tale for other children and their adults. Parents and children can team together to make stop motion movies, create superheroes, see what floats in the Wind Tube, and more. There’s always something growing on at Treehouse! <https://www.treehousemuseum.org/programs/family-programs>

Utah Museum of Contemporary Art, SLC, invites children of all ages and their families to discover our changing exhibitions and participate together in hands-on art making activities led by a trained educator. Each activity connects to a brand new idea, medium or theme explored by an artist currently exhibited in the museum. Projects are suitable from toddler to tween in a wide range of abilities. Family Art Saturday is offered FREE of charge. Museum admission is a $5 suggested donation to help support our programming. <http://www.utahmoca.org/family-art-saturday/>

Utah Museum of Fine Arts, SLC, UMFA programs and tours spark curiosity and creativity for visitors of all ages. Whether you are a U of U student or faculty, family looking for hands-on art making or classes for children and adults, an adult interested in lectures or films, a K–12 educator, you will find programs at the UMFA to deepen your connection to great art. Join us today and dive into a world of art and adventure! Third Saturdays of every month are dedicated to family events. <http://umfa.utah.edu/family>

Ballet West offers summer workshops for children in SLC, Lehi, and Park City. <https://balletwest.org/>

Repertory Dance Theatre, SLC— Ring Around the Rose has offered Saturday events featuring the work of many artistic companies, groups and organizations for many years. <http://www.rdtutah.org/forkids.html>

Cedar City Junior Ballet, Cedar City, has a full length production each year. Next season will be Secret Garden. For more information visit: <https://www.cedarcityjuniorballet.org/>

Cedar City Youth Dance Classes, Cedar City — $60 for 12 classes. <http://www.cedarcity.org/899/Youth-Beginning-Dance-Classes>

daCi (dance and the Child international) Utah, SLC, holds a Utah Day of Dance for children, youth, and families to participate together. <https://www.facebook.com/daCiUtah/?ref=ts>

Odyssey Dance Theatre, Highland, offers a workshop, competition, and performance for children and youth. <http://odysseydance.com/>

Samba Fogo, SLC, is spreading the joy of Afro-Brazilian Music and Dance through classes, workshops and camps year-round for children and youth. Students learn hands-on Brazilian drumming, dance, song, and folklore, creating a final performance for friends and family on the final day of camp. <http://sambafogo.com/classes/>

Virginia Tanner/Children's Dance Theatre, SLC, offers two concerts. CDT's concert is in March or April at the Capitol Theatre. This annual spring performance usually features a well-known children's book choreographed to original music. Their web page noted below offers the dates for various upcoming performances throughout Utah. <http://www.tannerdance.utah.edu/performances-events/>

festivals

Cache Valley Storytelling Festival, Logan—A FREE festival for the family held on the second weekend of June. <http://www.cachefest.com/>

Neil Simon Festival, Cedar City, seeks to provide accessible, entertaining theatrical experiences that excite the imagination and nourish a lifelong passion for the theatre. <http://www.simonfest.org/>

The Utah Arts Festival, SLC, takes place the 4th weekend of June each summer and is held downtown in Salt Lake City at Library and Washington Squares. Having garnered numerous awards internationally, nationally and locally, the event remains one of the premiere events that kicks off the summer in Utah each June. The art yard provides various activities for kids, including literary workshops, toddler zone, face painting and the Leonardo Family Lounge. <https://uaf.org/>

The Utah Shakespeare Festival, Cedar City, is a Tony Award-winning, professional theatre located on the campus of Southern Utah University that presents Shakespeare and plays from other playwrights every June through October in three theatres at the Beverley Taylor Sorenson Center for the Arts. Playmakers provides high quality theatre experiences for children from ages six to sixteen. Summer workshops also offered by this festival. <http://www.bard.org/>

Latino Arts Festival, Park City, FREE event for the family that features folkloric dance, live music, artwork and a Sundance Institute film screening. <https://www.facebook.com/events/1353577174729679/>

Living Traditions Festival, SLC—Held at the SLC City/County Washington Square every May. Living Traditions is FREE, offers three stages of the performing arts representing many cultures. There are workshops, crafts demonstrations and one can also eat around the world at the food booths. There is also a hands-on kids area. <http://livingtraditionsfestival.com/>

Springville Museum of Art, Springville— In addition to providing quality life-affirming art, the Museum strives to offer

FREE cultural experiences and educational opportunities. We do this by hosting a wide selection of events for children, youth, and families. The Children's Art Festival Takes place every summer and teens can exhibit their own artwork or receive critique by a professional artist.

<http://www.smofa.org/youth-family-programs.php>

St. George Art Museum, St. George — In the Family

Discovery Center, for each exhibit, we feature multi-disciplinary, hands-on learning activities that expand upon the concepts featured in the art and increase the child's awareness and thought processes of that art. <https://www.sgcity.org/arts/artsfacilities/artmuseum/familydiscoverycenter>

Southern Utah University Museum of Art, Cedar City, in partnership with artsFUSION offers a family arts night series, a Create Playdate program for children ages 3-5, and provides activities every Saturday for all ages. <https://www.suu.edu/pva/suma/education/youth-family-programs.html>

Thanksgiving Point, Lehi— Each week at Thanksgiving Point are tons of educational and fun activities for families of all ages and abilities! Our Family Programs include, Tales for Tots (hands-on storytelling adventures held each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings at 11 am), Melody Makers (tots explore music and movement at the Museum of Natural Curiosity and Farm Country. Tuesdays at 11 am: Museum of Natural Curiosity. Thursdays at 11 am: Farm Country). All activities are FREE for Thanksgiving Point Members, as they are included with venue admissions.

<https://www.thanksgivingpoint.org/education/family-programs/>

Fairview Museum of History & Art, Fairview—

Artstarts, an after school art class for ages 5-10, which focusses on touring and discussing the different genres and mediums of our vast art collection, followed by basic techniques in art, such as making color wheels and exploring watercolors, clay, wire shapes, paper mache, etc., to encourage creativity among the children. $10 per child for a 10 week course—which covers supplies only. Offered usually February through April. Also offered is a Children’s Art Gallery and a FREE demonstration of the oncedying art of lace-making (in July). For details, visit <http://fairviewmuseum.org/>

The Leonardo Museum, SLC, is a first-of-it’s-kind museum where you can explore the unexpected places and ways that science, technology, art, and creativity connect. Family nights and weekends offered throughout the year. <http://www.theleonardo.org/>

Murray History Museum, Murray— Provides activities for kids every Monday, such as art blast, sew cool, and more. FREE, but registration is required. Register on-line at mcreg.com or 801-264-2614

Nora Eccles Harrison Museum of Art, Logan, hosts Family Art Days on the third Saturday of each month from 11 am – 2 pm. This event is geared towards families and includes different educational and art activities each month that are fun and age-appropriate for all. <https://artmuseum.usu.edu/education/families>

Park City Art Museum, Park City — Offers ways for multi-generational groups to enjoy and experience history together. The Museum offers a scavenger hunt which guides kids and families through the exhibits and provides them with a fun way to find answers to questions about Park City’s fascinating past! Additional events are posted on the website’s calendar. <http://parkcityhistory.org/>

Orem Summer Fest, Orem, provides crafts for kids, a concert, and storytelling. <http://summerfest.orem.org/events/>

Story Crossroads Festival, West Jordan—Children and youth are invited to participate on the main stage event and the Story Crossroads Youth Teller Reunion. Contact storycrossroads@gmail.com to find your liaison.

Timpanogos Storytelling Festival, Orem, Auditions for children and youth to participate in this festival are held every year. Selected tellers present one 3-9 minute story on stage at the Timpanogos Storytelling Festival as featured Festival Youth Tellers. Children and youth can also audition for the National Youth Storytelling Showcase. The Timpanogos Storytelling Conference & Festival is a great place for the whole family. Between storytelling performances, there is live music by some of the region’s best bands and even puppet performances for the little ones. <http://timpfest.org/>

Utah Asian Festival, SLC, provides performances, exhibits, arts, crafts, and a children’s activity center. <http://www.utahasianfestival.com/index.html>

VernalUTAH Storytelling Festival, Vernal— Community performances that bring families together. <http://vernalutahstorytellingfestival.webstarts.com/index.html>

film/digital media arts

Spy Hop Productions, SLC, mentors young people in the digital media arts to help them find their voice, tell their stories, and be empowered to affect positive change in their lives, their communities, and the world. It is an award winning youth digital media center. In 2015, Spy Hop won the National Arts and Humanities Youth Program Award. Workshops and summer camps offered. <http://spyhop.org/>

Workshops and summer camps offered. <http://spyhop.org/>

Utah Film Center, SLC, inspires and engages diverse audiences to initiate conversation and community building through curated film exhibition, educational programs, and artist support. Each Fall, they hold their Tumbleweeds Film Festival which also provides workshops for children and youth. http://

www.utahfilmcenter.org/

museums

Brigham Young University Museum of Art, Provo, offers daily self-guided scavenger hunts, art-making experiences on the first and third Saturdays of each month, an educational experience in exhibition galleries and hands-on art activity every Tuesday and Thursday to children ages 2-4 years. They also have costume tours designed for children five and older. <http://moa.byu.edu/learn/family-programs/>

Chase Home Museum of Utah Folk Art, SLC, is the only museum in the country dedicated to displaying a state-owned collection of contemporary folk art. Offers classes, hands-on workshops, artist visits, Mondays in the Park Concert Series, June Jubilee, and many more events. <https://www.facebook.com/chasehomemuseum> and many more events. <https://www.facebook.com/chasehomemuseum>

www.facebook.com/chasehomemuseum

CUAC Contemporary Art, SLC, program for pre-school, elementary, and middle school aged students that has art history and hands-on elements to the curriculum. <http://www.cuartcenter.org/education-2>

Discovery Gateway Children's Museum, SLC —

Whether your child loves painting, dancing, stories, or scientific exploration our programming offers fun and educational classes that range from literacy- and culturally-based activities, to science, to visual and performing arts. Discovery Gateway's daily classes and weekly workshops are FREE with admission to the Museum, and every DG program is based on research, evaluation, and testing. <http://www.discoverygateway.org/classes-a-special-events/class-info/>

